The second day of the Daly-West.

When he and Mr. Mosby secured a thirty-day refusal of a lease from the directors of the company some ten days' ago, terms and conditions were discussed and practically settled, but at the close of the conference Mr. Flindt left without giving the board any promise that the lease would be called for unless he could hit on a method of profitably handling the ores method of profitably handling the ore

However, there it is, and in the years gone by immense amounts of it have been taken out.

The principal producer at the present time is the property of Thompson & McNally, and the ores from this and other mines being worked in an individual way supply ores to keep a portion of the old stamp mill at the camp in operation, and nice money is being cleaned up every month.

SILVER SHIELD'S SHIPMENT.

Nearly $4,000 Worth of Ore Marketed Yesterday.

The Silver Shield company of Bingham had fifty tons of concentrates and sixty tons of crude ore on yesterday's market, for which it will tomorrow take down a check for approximately $2,800. The shipment represents the September output, and good as it is, the management is confident of bettering the showing for this month. The expenses of the company for the month were, in round numbers, $1,500, so a profit of $2,300 was made.

Assay returns on the concentrates showed the metallic contents to be 20.3 per cent lead, 27.5 ounces silver, $2.20 in gold, as well as a little copper and a nice excess of iron. On the crude ore, returns showed 41.5 per cent lead, 42 ounces silver, $2.40 in gold and, as with the concentrates, about 3 per cent company ought to keep an assessment of swell as a little copper and an excess of iron.

The Dalton Gold Mining & Milling company Nas just issued a circular letter to the stockholders officially advising them that a lease and bond has been given on the property for a year, naming the purchase price as $100,000 instead of $250,000, as reported in these columns several days ago. The letter does not state to whom the bond was given, neither does it disclose how the payments are to be made. It tells of the sale of $6,000 shares of treasury stock for $2,100 to meet current expenses, etc... and trusts the action will meet the approval of the stockholders. Otherwise the circular gives nothing new in the way of information.

NO MAY DAY LEASE GIVEN.

Fred Flindt Says He May Not Want One.

Without "a lease for two years upon the milling ores of the May Day in his inside pocket" Fred A. Flindt and S. W. Mosby, the latter accompanied by his wife, left for San Francisco yesterday noon and upon their return the question of whether or not a lease shall be taken upon the second-class ores of the May Day will be determined, but he said the mile was two beard on the server and $2,670.31 had been spent in development work during the year, and $7,961.04 was derived from the sale of ores. The expense account has amounted to about $1,200 per month, and the company owed when the books were balanced. $10.874.67. As an offset to this indebtedness there is still unsold 7,950 shares of treasury stock.

Secretary Wallace says the work of dirifting on the 200 level below the tunnel which is now in progress will be continued and while it is not the purpose to subordinate development work during the year, and $7,961.04 was derived from the sale of the sale of the May Day in the county.

Northern Light is down also, 5½c being the closing bid yesterday as against 6c a week since, though the latter price was paid for 1,000 shares yesterday morning.

How the Use of a Home Product Has

Been Made Possible.

Much has been said pro and con for the possibility of making pure candy of Utah sugar, and it has been left for the foremost candy, company in the city—the J. G. McDonald Candy company—to achieve the desired result, as their elegant display at the state fair will attest. The McDonald Candy company is foremost in everything in their art, and the excellence of their goods is a household word throughout the entire west. On their display they took first prize and gold medal and $70 in cash. Also second prize, diploma and $15 for the best candy made of Utah sugar. Their exhibit probably attracted more attention than any other at the fair, because of its artistic arrangement and quality of goods displayed. tic arrangement and quality of goods displayed.

George Walker, a drunken machinist, stirred up considerable excitement on Second South street last night by attempting to disfigure the countenance of Jef Wilson, the proprietor of a candy stand at 13½ East Second South street. Walker had no provocation whatever for his assault, but he had secured a fighting jag and seemed to be possessed of an uncontrolable desire to hit someone.

We sold thousands of men's suits last year.

We said with every one, if you find anything wrong, bring the suit back-a new part, a new garment, or your money back.

A most liberal choice; mighty few came back; not as many as we expected, because in big stocks like ours there are always sure to be some shortcomings. We say again, if you get one, bring it back; it means more to us than to you. Men's suits run $6.00 to $30.00; some nobby things at $12.00, $15.00, $18.00, in fancy worsteds, fancy cheviots, cassimeres, blue serges, vicunas.

Men's Overcoats.

You'll be surprised at the Overcoat you'll get here for your money. We know it'll be a third better than you can get elsewhere.

The fabric, the lining, the tailoring, all the best that's possible to put into garments for the money.

We've Overcoats as low as $8.50 and up to $40.

Black Kerseys, blue Kerseys, Oxford mixtures, Coverts, Cheviots.

There's one at $12, a very swell garment for the money.

Of Oxford Covert on the outside, fancy plaid on inside, no lining except in sleeves, strap seams, full box back, cut proper length.
